

OCTOBER

- 1 The IT and software development staff are gathering together today to spend time in prayer individually and corporately at nearby Cane Creek Park. May God refresh and inspire them.
- 2 Pray for Wycliffe recruiter Stephen Currie, who will share about careers in Bible translation at Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte today.
- 3 For the Missions at the Airport event in Carlisle, Pa., today, pray for safe flying and divine contacts for furthering Bible translation.
- 4 Pray for Bret Taylor October 4–18 as he leads a seminar for high-school-aged MKS living with their families in Indonesia. Pray for safe travel and a quick connection with the students.
- 5 Today is the Day of Prayer for the Peace of Jerusalem. Let's join together in prayer for our brothers and sisters in this embattled land.
- 6 Pray for preparations for JAARS Day. Pray that staff will be energized over the potential this event offers for visitors to become involved in Bible translation.
- 7 Praise the Lord for extra staff who helped care for 14 preschoolers while their parents attended the summer Intercultural Communications Course. Pray for a new director of the preschool, needed this month.
- 8 Please pray for the Intercultural Communications Course staff and participants, for good health and open hearts to learn what God wants for them this month.
- 9 Pray for efforts to complete necessary work on a transport boat, so we can ship it to the islands northeast of Papua New Guinea. Pray also for needed funding, an important next step.
- 10 Pray for Nathanael Gregoriev, Guy Mevele, and the Naami, Chung, and Mongong language teams in Cameroon as they dub Luke films in October and November.
- 11 Pray for another successful JAARS Day today. Praise God for the August 9 JAARS Day, which was a success, with safe flights, despite rainy weather. We had over 450 registered attendees.
- 12 Pray for perseverance for those involved in Bible translation to not grow weary or give up before the work is complete.
- 13 Pray the Lord will minister to women, returning from serving overseas, through the LimboLinks program. Each week they gather for fellowship, Scripture meditation, sharing, and prayer. Pray for facilitators Bonnie Price, Euni Warfel, and Julie Davis.
- 14 Pray for the JAARS senior services staff as they offer information, resources, and a listening ear to senior citizens here at JAARS.
- 15 Thank God for JAARS volunteers, some of whom hold positions of significant responsibility, while others faithfully perform behind-the-scenes tasks. All are needed and appreciated.
- 16 Thank the Lord for everyone who responded to The Campaign for Possible. God provided JAARS with new prayer partners, advocates, financial partners, and co-laborers.
- 17 Pray for good interaction with visitors at Missions at the Airport at the Shelby Airport Fly-In and Open House in Shelby, N.C., tomorrow.
- 18 A mini JAARS Day takes place today at a 4WD jamboree in Uwharrie National Forest in N.C. Pray the public become aware and excited about how technology and logistics support Bible translation.
- 19 Thank God for missions-minded churches. Pray for a missions vision for many additional churches.
- 20 Pray for Mountain Week aviation off-site training this week in Spruce Pine, North Carolina. Eight pilot-mechanics and the training staff will deploy to the Avery County airport for extensive flight and maintenance training events, including short/sloped field operations, mountain flight/ridge crossings, low-level visual navigation, and maintenance support away from the base.
- 21 Wycliffe recruiter Stephen Currie will be speaking today in chapel at Mid-Atlantic Christian University to invite students to join the global Bible translation movement. Pray for a good response.
- 22 Pray for the work of transitions ministries at JAARS, as we assist furloughing members. We seek to minister through welcoming and providing information as people re-enter American culture.
- 23 Pray for our many widows and widowers at JAARS. We provide a venue for social interaction and encouragement as they enter a new phase of life.
- 24 Pray for the planning committee for the upcoming Spiritual Vitality Day at JAARS. As last year, we will reach out to our community by doing yard work, home repairs, and assisting caregivers within their homes. Please pray that not only will physical needs be met, but lives will be touched by God's love.
- 25 Pray for encouragement for new Wycliffe members seeking prayer and financial partners. Ask God to bless their willingness to go and serve.
- 26 Praise God the Nie family, a new maritime team, will complete training in early November. Pray as they plan to sail from Hawaii to Papua New Guinea to support maritime projects there in early 2015.
- 27 In 2013, a translation project began in the Marma language of Bangladesh. Pray that church leaders will gain greater vision and passion for using mother-tongue Scriptures within their congregations.
- 28 Pray for career advisors here at JAARS and elsewhere. They help members discover their giftings, energizing them to serve to their fullest potential in Bible translation.
- 29 Pray for the Torres Strait boat captain and crew as they begin operations with the new Coweambah. Pray especially for wisdom and safety.

30 Pray for JAARS representatives at the Fall Career Fair at LeTourneau University today, for good opportunities as they interact with students seeking the Lord's will for their lives.

31 Pray for God's blessing on the Missions at the Airport event at Columbia International University, Columbia, South Carolina, tomorrow.

NOVEMBER

1 Pray for Wycliffe USA career advisors as they meet together in Dallas November 2–6 to discuss how they can best help members going through job transitions.

2 Caryl Mallory is inspiring Taylor University students at their World Opportunities Week on how their major and skills can support Bible translation.

3 Rukang Chikomb, a pilot with Southern Congo Wings of the Morning, is here at JAARS for recurrent training in the Cessna 206. Pray for safe flying and a good grasp of the information presented.

4 Pray for good interaction during school visits at the Missions at the Airport event in the Tampa/Clearwater, Florida, area Nov. 4–7.

5 Continue to pray for Tim and Gina Matthews as they complete partnership development and then attend the Pacific Orientation Course in Papua New Guinea. They are preparing to serve on the JAARS transport boat in the islands northeast of Papua New Guinea.

6 Pray for Tom Bogle as he explores an opportunity to help set up a software development group in Southeast Asia.

7 Pray for safe flying and good interaction with visitors at the Missions at the Airport event in Clearwater, Florida, Nov. 8–9.

8 Pray for God to raise up youth workers to help run the MK (missionary kids) program at JAARS. Praise God for volunteers who are helping in the short term.

9 Ellis Deibler is working with Wycliffe Associates to promote a broader use of his book, Translation for Translators. He has been asked to go to Eurasia in November to explain the ins and outs of translation to a large group of people who want to use it to translate the Scriptures into their own languages.

10 Wycliffe recruiter Stephen Currie will be speaking in chapel at Montreat College today, inviting students to join the global Bible translation movement.

11 JAARS pre-field orientees will attend a week-long turbine engine heavy maintenance course presented by Bill Kolafa. This course results in the complete teardown and rebuild of a Pratt & Whitney PT-6 jet turbine engine. Pray for skill and understanding.

12 The translation team for Northern Thai have asked for wisdom, perseverance, and strength as they work on getting the remaining books to the consultant-check phase (Romans, Hebrews, 1 and 2 Corinthians, and Philemon).

13 JAARS board meetings will be held in Dallas, Texas, Nov. 13–15. Pray for wisdom and discernment during important discussions.

14 JAARS staff will showcase technology at a local community college's Geek Fest. Pray for great interaction and a Christlike witness on campus.

15 Praise God for the JAARS groundskeepers and gardeners, as they keep the center looking beautiful for staff and visitors.

16 Please continue to pray with us that God would raise up qualified candidates to fill key positions at the JAARS Center by the end of the year.

17 Pray for National Languages Media Services in Cameroon as they work on the logistics and funding for 10 major film dubbing projects October through April.

18 Pray for JAARS housing staff as they daily seek to satisfy visitors with the best accommodations to fit their need.

19 Pray for JAARS housekeepers as they make sure each unit is clean and prepared for visitors.

20 Please pray with us for the Lord to send aviation maintenance technicians to join the team.

21 Mark Wuerffel and Josh Eicholtz will be attending the Spokane Training Center for Kodiak training for field pilots November 22–25. Pray for good weather and safe flying.

22 Pray for planning and preparation for the next Passport to Christmas at JAARS on December 6.

23 Continue to pray for God to send an assistant director of maritime services and boat operations, to assist in managing worldwide maritime operations, which include scheduling, budgeting, maintenance, and employee supervision.

24 Pray for our missionary families, for their marriages to grow stronger in the Lord every day. For protection over their children as they grow in their own faith.

25 Praise God for the people who have committed to pray weekly for specific projects, for language and people groups, and for JAARS programs supporting Bible translation. We pray, too, that God would bless you all for praying!

26 Pray for wisdom as JAARS purchasing and shipping buyers seek the best value and price in purchasing mission supplies and equipment.

27 Pray for the leaders at JAARS, that they would be filled with wisdom and humility as they make decisions about how best to allocate the resources God has entrusted to JAARS.

28 Pray for the translation team working on the Hawaii Pidgin Old Testament. They hope to be ready to go to press in 2015.

29 Please be in prayer for a first-time conference featuring Wycliffe and JAARS to be held on January 31 at Go Ye Village retirement community in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

30 Aviation technical evaluations, now in progress, involve an extensive two-week professional and technical “job interview” for prospective aviation mechanics-pilots. Pray for clarity in decision-making for the evaluator.
